MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director for Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Inaugural Medallions

25X1 1. At your request I looked into the source or supply of the inaugural medallion presented to our recent [redacted] The following details are from [redacted] Desk, who I am sure would be glad to help if you are interested in stockpiling.

2. The medallions were struck by the Philadelphia Mint on behalf of a little-known organization, the Committee to Re-elect the President. Approximately four inches in diameter, the obverse shows a profile of President Nixon overlapping one of Vice President Agnew. On the reverse is the seal of the United States. The medallion you saw was the bronze version, which retails at $6; a silver version, much more handsome, is appropriately priced at $45 each. Our source of supply was the coin and stamp department of Woodward and Lothrop, Chevy Chase.

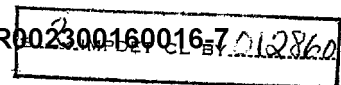

3. If we can be of further help, please let me know.
